LightingEurope confirms Executive Board and President

Brussels, 3 April 2025 – The LightingEurope General Assembly re-elected on 28 March the outgoing Executive Board for a two-year mandate. The role of the LightingEurope Executive Board is to implement LightingEurope's strategy and work programme. It is composed of 16 members, equally divided between representatives of member national lighting associations and member companies.

The newly appointed Board confirmed Maurice Maes as President of LightingEurope on the same day. Maurice Maes has been Head of Standards & Regulations at Signify since 2015 and has more than 25 years of experience in associations, having served on the boards of industry initiatives such as the ZigBee Alliance, LightingEurope and as President of the Global Lighting Association.

Jürgen Waldorf, Managing Director of the ZVEI Lighting Division and licht.de, was also re-elected as Vice President, and Miguel Aguado, Marketing and Technology Manager EMEA at Lutron, was re-elected as Treasurer.

"I am honoured to be re-elected as President of LightingEurope and would like to thank the Board and our members for their trust. Our industry is at a pivotal moment, with opportunities to better enforce existing regulations and shape the ones to come. Together with the members of the Board and the Secretariat of LightingEurope, our mission is to lead the European lighting industry towards the LightingEurope 2030 vision, promoting a European market where the value of lighting is widely recognised, supported by robust regulations that encourage innovation in sustainable, digital lighting," says Maurice Maes.

The Executive Board consists of the following members (by alphabetical order of family name):

- Miguel Aguado, Lutron, UK (Treasurer)
- Alfredo Berges, Anfalum, Spain
- Flavio Bertoli, Ledvance, Germany
- Jean-Marie Croué, Syndicat du Luminaire-GIL, France
