Press Release

The Lighting Association of Ireland has joined LightingEurope

The Lighting Association of Ireland has become a member of LightingEurope. The association has 24 members representing lighting product manufacturers, distributors, and designers.

“LightingEurope welcomes the Lighting Association Ireland,” says Ourania Georgoutsakou, Secretary General of LightingEurope. “We share a common vision to promote the benefits of good lighting and we look forward to working with LAI to deliver a sound regulatory framework with simple rules that are enforced swiftly and effectively.”

About Lighting Europe

LightingEurope is the voice of the lighting industry, based in Brussels and representing 34 companies and national associations. Together these members account for over 1,000 European companies, a majority of which are small or medium-sized. They represent a total European workforce of over 100,000 people and an annual turnover exceeding 20 billion euro. LightingEurope is committed to promoting efficient lighting that benefits human comfort, safety and well-being, and the environment. LightingEurope advocates a positive business and regulatory environment to foster fair competition and growth for the European lighting industry.
